Join us for a day of golf and support a great organization dedicated to raising vital funds to help children live fulfilling and rewarding lives.

The Lisa Beth Gerstman Foundation enables children with physical disabilities in the New York City Metropolitan Area and the Northeast United States to experience summer camp. By partnering with existing accredited camps, the Foundation affords families the ability to send children into integrated camp settings. The Lisa Beth Gerstman Foundation believes that every child deserves the opportunity to participate in a safe, caring, and fun learning environment.

The Lisa Beth Gerstman Foundation is proud to honor Joe McFarland, President - Western Division, The Home Depot at the Annual Golf Classic.

Joe McFarland is responsible for leading more than 78,800 associates in 497 stores throughout 13 Western states: Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington and Wyoming. He is engaged with the everyday business strategies of operations, human resources, safety, asset protection, new store growth and merchandising for the division.

Prior to his current position, for more than four years, Joe served as a regional vice president responsible for the NY Metro Region, the highest-volume region within the Company. In that capacity, Joe directed the operations of 94 stores across northern New Jersey, New York City's five boroughs, Long Island and Connecticut. In all, Joe has been with The Home Depot for 17 years, initially as an electrical sales associate.

Before joining The Home Depot, Joe served his country for six years. The former United States Marine is a Gulf War veteran. He is active in supporting several charitable organizations, including City of Hope and Queens Centers for Progress.

Lisa Beth Gerstman Foundation is a 501(c)(3) organization.

Thank you for your support.
